RALPH ALDERMAN "Speedy"

Ralph is neither one of our athletes nor one of our social lions. With his pleasing and graceful manner he has endeared himself to many during his four years at Drury. Ralph believes in studying occasionally, but he firmly asserts that pleasures should come before work. So it is with him that we send our best wishes in whatever he hopes to undertake in the future.

MOLLY ASTORINO

Faust 1 Traffic Corps 4 Minstrels 4

Molly can be compared to George Washington. Although not first in war, her name makes her the first girl in the class and so she had the honor of occupying the first seat in the first row in Study C. Molly always comes to school with a sunny smile. She is ready to help anyone who asks her, and she always does her share. "Mol" is undecided what she will do next year but whatever she does we wish her great Success.

IRENE MAE BELANGER

Soccer 1 Basketball 3, 4

Irene is one of our athletic girls. She is a good player and a good sport. "I" worked hard while in high school and has won the admiration of her school mates and teachers. She expects to be a nurse and 1929 is confident that she will be a good one.

MARGUERITE BELANGER "Peggy" "Peg"

Class Play Com. 4 Nu Sigma 2, 3
Sec'y Student Council 4 Pro Merito 4

Meet the Dolores Del Rio of the class. "Peg" is a demure little French maiden whose heart is lost in a big blonde hero.

"Peg" is a sprinter, especially at one minute of eight.

As a pianist, "Peggy" excels beyond measure. One might say she can make the old piano speak.

Peg's dancing, pleasing personality, and winning smile have made her one of the most popular girls of the class.

ETHEL BERGEN "Et"

Drama Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Nu Sigma 3, 4
Band Member 1, 2, 3, 4 Pro Merito 4
Academe Typist 4

What would happen if Ethel came to school with her homework not prepared? Surely, something; for Ethel loves to study. Ethel also likes her good times, and is always ready to be a member of the party.

Ethel has been a most ardent member of the band.

"Et" is one of those lucky girls who can hold their laughter until out-side of class. We girls enviously long to learn the secret, but somehow we can't get on to it.

CATHERINE BERNARD "Kay"

Associate Editor of Classbook 4 Drama Club 4
Class Play Committee 4 Classbook Typist 4
Service Corps 3

Oh! here is one of our popular boosters of the Berkshire Street Railway Company. "Kay" hails from Briggsville. She helps to make up the Scotch population. We all think a lot of her, and we know that she will make a very efficient stenographer and typist, for she is skilled in the art of chewing gum.

MARY BIGELOW

Troy, New Hampshire
Keene, New Hampshire

Mary is one of those girls who have traveled a great deal during their high school careers, for she had been in two other high schools, before she came to rove in the halls of Drury. She is undecided what she will do next year, but we wish her the best of luck in whatever she undertakes.

ERNEST BISHOP "Ernie" "Beau" "D"

Football 3, 4 Service Corps 4 Basketball 3, 4 French Club 1, 2, 3
Baseball 3, 4 Study Hall Supervisor 4 Class Play 4 Traffic Corps 4
President Student Council Editor-in-Chief Class Book

We have named him "Beau" because hers—yes! hers—is "Belle." You may readily see, by glancing at the above list, that "Ernie" has been especially prominent during his senior year in many school activities. His ready wit and jovial nature have made him a favorite with the entire student body and faculty. He is our smallest and "peppiest" athlete. "Ernie" is one of our few three-letter men. As President of our Student Council, he has guarded our welfare and guided our destinies in a remarkable fashion.

VERONICA BRESSETT

Basketball 4

Veron is one of those girls who go through life enjoying herself and being a friend to everyone. It wasn't until her senior year that she decided to take any part in school affairs. Veronica has not yet announced her plans for the future but it is rumored that she will be a teacher.

NORMAN BUCHANAN "Norm" "Buke"

Football 3

Norman belongs to that class of boys who likes to come to school, but oh! how he hates the homework! Although he has made himself heard by few he has made himself liked by all. He once surprised all of us when he appeared in a pair of plus fours. His favorite pastime is skipping classes, a practise that he has perfected to great advantage.

HULDA BUFFUM "Buzz"

Basketball 1

Academe Staff

Who has not encountered somewhere in the hall "Buzz" tall, slim and carefree; wandering leisurely to her classroom with but a minute to go. When one meets "Buzz" on the street with her car seemingly packed, she always stops and manages to get you in somewhere. "Buzz" expects to journey to Bradford Academy this fall where we know she will meet with success.

CARROLL BURDICK "Dutch"

Baseball 4

Service Corps 4

Class Play 4

Carroll is one of those boys who attends school regularly—about three times each week. He appears rather quiet, but those who reside in the West End may testify that "Dutch" is a "real fellow." He is one of our smallest boys which is one reason why he has never shone on our varsity teams, but anyone who has seen him in athletic competition can see that he is a very good athlete. "Dutch" is no "grind" but he has done well in his studies. In parting from here, we give him our sincerest wishes.

CHARLES CANEDY "Charlie" "D"

Football 2, 3, 4	Chief Marshal 4
Basketball 3, 4	Pres. of D. A. A. 4
Baseball 2, 3, 4	Captain of Baseball 4

"Charlie" is a very easy-going fellow. Although formerly very bashful he has now turned out to be a full-fledged "lady-killer." He is one of our rollicking joyful, good-natured boys who believe in letting the "rest o' the world roll by." Charles is one of the few three-letter men in school. In recognition of his great work he was elected co-captain of the Baseball Team, where his fielding has made him one of the main cogs of Coach Hosley's team.

JOHN CARLOW "Johnnie"

John is one of the fellows who is not so well known as some, but is liked a great deal by those who do know him. He has not done anything of great significance in his high school course, but he does have the admiration of all his instructors. He is a fast man at the wheel of any vehicle and it is that ability as a driver that has enabled him to steer clear of the women. Because of the great many risks that he takes daily, he is skeptical about his plans for the future.

CLAIRE CAVANAUGH

Class Play	Drama Club 4
Academe Staff	French Club 3, 4

Here is the studious girl of our class. To see her leaving the building at 2 o'clock one would wonder why she didn't carry her desk along too. Although Claire is studious she finds plenty of time for fun and pleasure. Our basketball games would not be complete without her. She is planning to enter Normal School this fall and there we know success awaits her.

ELIZABETH CHASE

Basketball 1	Asst. Coach Senior Play
Service Corps	Academe 4
French Club	Traffic Corps 3

Elizabeth has an air of quiet dignity about her which has won her many friends. She always has a smile for everyone, and her quietness does not prevent her enjoying many good times. As Assistant Coach of the Senior Class Play she proved to be very efficient.

Next year Elizabeth plans to go to Russell Sage. We know that her quiet and efficient manner will make her successful there and ever after.

STANLEY CLARK "Stan" "Snoop"

"Stan" is one of those rare individuals who have gone through Drury, and made many friends and no enemies.

Although he entered school with the determination to acquire an education, he has not taken a book home since the first day of his freshman year. He has seemed a little quiet and unassuming to most of his classmates. However, those who know him best are familiar with his buoyant "party" spirit. "Stan" has remained immune from feminine charms but as for the future, who knows?

MARJORIE COSTELLO "Smudge" "Marj"

Soccer 1

Service Corps 3

Basketball 2

Class Play Committee 4

There's something about "Smudge" that everyone likes. She is always the same sweet-tempered pleasant girl. Even in the darkest hour, Marjorie's "cute little cupid-bow mouth" is forming a merry grin.

"Smudge" as you know doesn't believe in marriage, perhaps that is the secret of her ever joyful smile.

Marjorie expects to be someone's stenog. Lucky fellow!

ROLAND COUGHLIN "Rollie" "D"

Band 2, 3, 4

Nu Sigma Epsilon 2, 3

Class Secretary 3

Football Manager 4

Pro Merito 4

Drama Club 4

Student Council 4

Class President 4

"Rollie" is one of the most popular members of the class of '29. He is president of our class, carried the title role of the class play "Monsieur Beaucaire" and held other offices of minor importance. His good-natured way of going into outside activities has made him one of the best liked fellows in our class. His cheery smile, his "fresh" wit, and his inexhaustible friendliness have made him a pal to everyone. "Rollie" has made friends with most of the students and with all the teachers and will never be forgotten by them.

JAMES CREWS "Jimmy"

Minstrels 2, 4

Service Corps 4

French Club 1, 2, 3

What Senior will ever forget "Jimmie" Crews. Jimmie slides out of troubles as easily as he slips in. He has always been extremely popular with the girls. Moreover, he appears very quiet and peaceful but oh! wait till you try to argue with him. What a priceless possession this gift of oratory is, the ability to utter words that will bewitch the weaker sex.

FRANCIS CROWLEY "Doc" "Fran"

Chief Marshal of Service Corps 4

Class Play 4

Pro Merito 4

Hail to the "babe" of our class. Francis is the sophisticated lad who came to us late in our sophomore year and who has never left his studies cleft asunder. Although small in stature and broad of mind "Doc" displays extraordinary verility as a cave-man in putting the fair sex in their places, and in not showing susceptibility to their charms. He intends to find out what Jawn Hawvard has to offer next year in the field of education. The best wishes of '29 go with you ol' boy.

MARY DAILEY

Nu Sigma Epsilon 3

Service Corps

Pro Merito 4

Academe Staff

Drama Club 4

Gym Leader 3, 4

French Club 3, 4

Just look at that list following Mary's name. Need we tell you that she is a student and a very active member of Drury? Mary is not only popular with the members of the senior class, but with her lower classmates as well. Next year the halls of Drury will seem empty without her. She is going to Normal School and there is no doubt that success is in store for her.

MENA WHITEMAN DALTON "Mintie" "Banjo"

Nu Sigma Epsilon French Club 3, 4 Traffic Corps 4

Secretary of Pro Merito

Drama Club 3, 4

Mena is one of those blessed few who can do two things at once—study and earn good marks as well as thoroughly enjoy her four years at Drury by attending numerous parties and picnics with her side-partner (you know who that is). Her merry smile is usually in evidence wherever you see her and because of her willingness to help she is very often on some committee—"Mintie" plans to assume again the "greenness" of a "freshie" by gracing the halls of Mount Holyoke next year. We know she'll make Drury proud of her, don't we?

CHARLES DEAN "Charlie"

"Charlie," the tallest member of the "Drury Four Horsemen," is the boy who caused the "Dru" to have apoplexy. Like his companions he is very (?) quiet and studious. Although in the last year Charles has grown tall, it is not from excessive study. His great hobby is his unquenchable desire to match pennies. Beware, however, if he is in union with his namesake, for in some strange manner you will repeatedly lose. Because of his pleasing nature he has made many friends with both boys and girls. We will miss him.

ROGER DEAN "Bob" "Sardine"

If you are looking for some one who has a sense of humor you may stop right here. He is one who strangely believes in doing things at the last minute, such as "one minute of eight" arrivals every morning. "Bob" is subjected to spells of high "blonde pressure", and his sunny disposition combined with common sense make him an interesting person to talk to.

Success Roger, and don't forget to take that smile along wherever you go.

RAYMOND DODDS "Ray"

Pro Merito 4 Service Corps 4
Class Play 4

One look into "Ray's" eyes is enough to give anyone a suggestion of his personality. He is always ready for a good time, although nothing less exciting than a fire could tempt him, unless his homework had been finished to perfection. He goes his way quietly and unobtrusively—but we'd miss him if he weren't around.

GENEVIEVE DOHERTY "Gen" "Red"

Horseshoe pitching 1 Basketball 3, 4
Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4 Outing Club 2, 3, 4
Service Corps 3

"Gen" is one of our athletes. She doesn't care for studying, but she atones for this dislike by her work on the gymnasium floor. Here, as everywhere, she is always ready with a joking word and cheery smile. We know she will be successful in whatever she does.

ELIZABETH EXFORD "Betty" "Liz"

"Betty" is neither one of our social butterflies nor one of our noisy girls. With her pleasing and graceful manner she has endeared herself to many during her four years at Drury.

She is a good steady student and one who can always be depended upon to know the right thing, and do it. We'd all miss "Betty" if she should forsake us, and we're going to miss her when we leave Drury.

"Betty" has all the good wishes of the class of 1929.

PAUL FERN "Buddy"

Class Play 4

Paul is the smallest, most modest, and unassuming member of our class. To all appearances he is a shy boy who goes about his business every day, but that is external. In reality he is full of fun. Jolly, a very good sport, is Paul, and one who enjoys everything that comes along. Summing it all up we are very fortunate to have a boy like "Buddy" with us and we hope that his future will be as glamorous as his four years at Drury.

ELSIE FLAHERTY

We will always remember Elsie as a girl with a keen sense of humor and a winning smile. She has the faculty of hearing the latest jokes and of fully appreciating them.

Elsie is a favorite with the boys as well as with the girls. If she leaves this city for New York, as rumor has it, we are sure that the correspondence between the two cities will be great.

Elsie's plans for the future have remained a "deep secret" as yet, but we are sure she will find success in any course she chooses to follow.

VERONICA FORD "Vron"

Service Corps 4

"Vron" has a cheery disposition and a sunny smile. We know of one person who thinks this smile exceedingly appealing but then—we can't blame him—we are of the same opinion. Did Rumor still have it that New York still calls to "Vron" across the spaces? We wonder.

Veronica has not decided definitely what she would like to do next year. Whatever choice she makes we know will be a good one and we wish her much success.

PASQUALE GAGLIARDI "Babe" "Gag"

Baseball 2, 3, 4

Captain Baseball 4

Class Play 4

Class Basketball 3, 4

"Gag" is one of Drury's best all-round fellows. Although he is adept in all lines of sport, he has chosen baseball to shine in, and his snappy "Peg" has helped a great deal in winning his reward as captain of this year's team. His ability to wield the ashen bludgeons has enabled him to be considered as Berkshire County's slugger. He has always kept a good scholastic standing so that he would be invited to all Pro Merito parties. The Manual Training Department will greatly miss him, next year, when his name will be found on the register at Wentworth.

MADELINE GAGNON "Mad" "Bub"

Drama Club 4 Outing Club 2
Academe Typist 4 Soccer 2
French Club 2 Classbook Typist 4

If you are looking for someone who has a sense of humor, you may stop right here. We know of no one who can see something funny in seemingly tragic incidents better than Madeline.

The tall, handsome hero of last year's play holds Madeline's attention all the time; so outside of school, we seldom see her.

Madeline generally possesses the newest "funny-bone ticklers" in the school; so everyone flocks to Madeline to hear the latest.

Madeline's charm will grace the office of some business man.

CHESTER GALLUP "Pop" "Chet" "D"

Football 3, 4 Band 2, 3, 4
Basketball 1, 3, 4 Captain Basketball 4
Manager Baseball 4 Class President 3

Who does not know "Chet" with his jovial grin that has been so characteristic of his four years at Drury? Although he has not the clarity of wit that is displayed by his "partner in crime," "Ernie," he can make the entire class quake with laughter at his wisecracks. As captain of his elective sport, "Pop" led the basketball team through a successful campaign and a Northern Berkshire League championship. Alas! since a demure young maiden has taken "Holt" of his heart, he no longer frequents the sanctum sanctorum at Nassif's.

JAMES GILLOOLEY "Jim" "Gil"

"Jim" blushing admits that he is the undisputed school tennis champion. He has inspired fear and reverence with his mighty "lob" and his terrific "lofts." Moreover, he is one of our famous social lions. Scarcely a Drury hop goes by which does not find "Jim" stepping out with all the good-looking girls. He has many admirers who are pulling strongly for him to cop first prize as our best "Marathon Dancer." In addition to this, "Gil" was one of those "protege's" of J. F. McGrory up in the Chemistry Laboratory.

MARJORIE GILLOOLEY "Marj"

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

"Marj" is one of those girls who seems to be quiet but isn't really. She is very jolly when you know her, and she is always smiling. She doesn't study much, but she succeeds in passing her subjects. Good luck, "Marj"!

MARGARET GURNEY "Peg"

Nu Sigma Drama Club 4
Pro Merito Academe 4
Mistress of Wardrobe—Senior Play

"Peg" is one of our attractive and attracting lights in Drury. She is well liked by both faculty and classmates. Although she is always surrounded by a group of boys—not a small group either—still this does not seem to prevent her being one of our apt students.

If a certain engagement of "Peg's" does not keep her from attending Wheaton next year, we are sure she will hold high the "name and fame" of Drury.

ALICE HAIGH "Al"

Drama Club 4 Classbook typist 4

Le petite maiden from Blackinton.

Alice is one of Drury's loyal supporters. One would think so if he could hear her at the basketball games. Alice is generally heard before seen.

"Al's" interest is outside of the school at the present time, namely a husky with wavy brown hair. Alice's cute little dimples attract everyone's attention, especially those of the opposite sex.

We wish you luck, happiness, and wealth, Alice, and all the good things in life.

JESSIE HART "Jess" "Jay" "Jetty"

Class Play Properties 4 Service Corps 3
Basketball 1 Academe Typist 4

Jessie is one of those rollicking good-natured girls who believes in letting the "rest o' the world roll by."

If you hear a giggle above the rest, if you are continually pestered for gum, Jessie's around! (The boys always know that, anyway.)

Silence! Her heart has fled to the regions of the Sophomore Class. A good-looking Scotch athlete has captivated our "Jess."

In spite of your faults, "Jess," we all love you just the same, and may success be your constant friend forever.

HELEN HASKINS

"When joy and duty clash, Let duty go to smash."

Helen likes a good time above all else. But then most of us do. She does not neglect her studies though, for you see that by the fact that she has been, for a year, a "high and mighty" senior. Helen expects to work in the telephone office next year.

499-7019
 Outhfield

MARGARET FRANCES HICKS "Peg"
"Marg"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4 Soccer 3, 4
Service Corps 4

Peg is one of the star performers on the Senior girls' basketball team and, with the aid of "Whit" usually runs up a high tally. She seems to like Ford cars and the C—(?) family and we find her eager for the end of fourth period. We wonder why?

PAULINE HOCKRIDGE

Editor-in-Chief of the Academe Pro Merito
Editor Junior Academe Nu Sigma Epsilon
Outing Club 2 Service Corps 4
Associate Editor of Class Book

Here is our literary genius! By means of Pauline's unfailing energy the "Academe" has steadily become better until now we are proud to pass the work on. She is another of those diligent workers who has earned the right to enjoy the activities of Pro Merito and while she is trudging the long corridors of Simmons we know she will earn many laurels.

CATHERINE HORAN

Minstrels 2 Faust 1

Here is one of our quiet, serious girls. You seldom see Catherine giggling. She is one whom you can always depend upon to say just what she thinks. And that is why we like her. She is planning to train for nursing next year. We all know she will be successful.

PETER HORN "Pete"

Band 2, 3, 4 Class Play 4
Service Corps 4 President Drama Club 4
Treasurer of Class 4

Behold the accomplished musician of the senior class. He is adept in playing the piano and saxophone. He is the envy of everyone when he is "jazzing" it on his "sax." "Pete" was one of our classical stars and delighted in Caesar, but, alas! he floundered when "he crossed the Rubicon." The so-called weaker sex can tell you that his line will get him anywhere. May success by yours, old chap, in all your undertakings.

ZOLA HURLEY "Zola" "Zolas"

President Nu Sigma 2, 3 Basketball 2, 3
Gym Class Leader 3, 4 Vice-President 3, 4
Outing Club 2, 3 Soccer 2, 3
Assistant Editor of Class Book

Zola's winning smile and pleasing personality have made her worthy of the highest honor the class may bestow upon a girl; namely our vice-president.

Zola left us for awhile in her third year, but was finally convinced that she couldn't stay away from "good old Drury."

"Zo" is not a grind but her record is a brilliant one. She has combined high scholarship and sportsmanship with unequalled success.

Every senior has a place in his heart for Zola. We shall never forget her. Here's the best of luck in the years to come!

STEWART JAYNE "Stuie" "Stew"

Band 2, 3, 4

We are just as proud as the other classes of old Drury in having a Jayne among our graduating numbers. "Stuie" is a "charter member" of the group of boys who frequent Sam. Hirsch's. He has played a clarinet in the band for three years and we wouldn't be terribly surprised if he could, by this time, produce one mellow tone, at least, from his squeaking instrument. "Stuie" has not yet picked his vocation, but in him there is the stuff that succeeds.

DOROTHY JOHNSON "Dot"

Drum Major 4 Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4
Traffic Corps 4 Soccer 1, 4

"Dot" has brightened the halls of Drury, for four years, with her smiles and winning ways. How many times have we listened with enchantment to her sweet voice in the auditorium? As Drum Major of Drury Band—well, few could excel our "Dot." We certainly predict a glorious future for her.

MORRIS KIRSCHENBAUM "Sheik" "Kirshie" "D"

Football 3, 4 Class Play 4
Associate Editor Class Book

Morris is one of those fellows who never bothers about his studies, but somehow he always manages to pull through. He has supplied the band with plenty of volume from his "sighing" cornet. He is endowed with an unlimited supply of "gab" that has enabled him to convince the "weaker-sex" that he is our John Gilbert. "Kirschie's" sterling work throughout the entire football season proved to be an important factor in the success of the team.

SYLVIA KROUSS

"Who is Sylvia? What is she? That all our swains commend her?"

Sylvia, you know, is one of our popular girls. But she loves to talk! Miss O'Shea can tell you that! Nevertheless, we wish her the best of luck in years to come.

EDITH FENTON LATHAM "Eddie" "Ed"

Drama Club 3, 4

French Club 3, 4

Edith soon found a place in the hearts of everyone of her schoolmates when she came to Drury. Her sunny disposition made any gathering more enjoyable and she always had a bright smile for you. The firm of "Dalton and Latham" is not to be dissolved, we hear, for "Eddie" has decided to accompany her "pardner" to Mount Holyoke. Here's luck, "Ed."

RACHEL LEE "Ray" Outing Club 2, 3

"Have a good time today, Tomorrow you may not have a chance."

"Ray" is another one of those girls who can get good marks without studying. We have seen her around the halls lately with a certain party, so that explains why she doesn't study. She will enter North Adams Hospital as a student-nurse next year. We are sure that she will have many patients who "don't want to get well" because of her cheerful smile.

JACK LESS "Jake" "D"

Band 2, 3, 4

Football 4

Allow me to present to you Jack Less, the world's finest "broad-jumper" potential political boss, and general bluff. In addition to that, "Jake" is one of the finest centers that have been developed at Drury. Since he began working at Sam Hirsch's Drug Store, the patronage at that noted emporium has magnified with a steadiness that must be extremely gratifying to the proprietor. "Jake" juggles the fruit juices with the best of them and his cheerful line enhances the enjoyment of the customers.

MARIE LEVESQUE "Lizzie" "Liz"

Basketball 1, 2
Soccer 1, 2

Band 4
Pro Merito 4

Nu Sigma 2, 3

Do you want to hear the latest joke? Go to Marie. She will always greet you with a smile.

Although Marie is one of our studious girls, she is always ready for a merry old time.

For the past year, Marie has taken to music. We wonder why!

The class holds you in high esteem, Marie, and our best wishes are extended to you.

MOLLY LEVITTE

We wonder what would happen if Molly should suddenly decide to grow tall? Something fatal, we feel sure. Nevertheless, we all like Molly, for she is wide-awake and very talkative. We feel certain that she will make a good nurse. She plans to train at Mount Sinai next year.

PAUL LOBO "Polly" "Smoky"

Football 2, 3, 4
Basketball 2, 3, 4
Baseball 3, 4

Captain Football 4
Service Corps 4
Traffic Corps 4

Paul is one of the most well-known fellows in school, first because of his athletic ability and also on account of his readiness to join in any form of fun. He has a friendly happy-go-lucky disposition. As to his scholastic ability, we are all wise to him. Although Paul is a three letter man, his favorite sport is football. He led the 1928 team through a successful season, bringing it to a close with his thirty-five yard field goal that spelled defeat to Adams. For three years "Smoky" had remained immune from feminine charms until the advent of a demure maiden in the class of 1932. Yes sirree! "Polly" is an advocate of the Palmer method.

JAYNETTE LOOMIS "Jane"

Traffic Corps 4

Senior Play 4

Here's Jaynette—er—beg pardon Jane. Didn't she make a pretty Lady Mary Carlyle in the class play with her lovely curls and haughty ways? That part did suit her well for she is quiet and lady-like at all times, and, we might add, quite a coquette. Jane hopes to attend Bridgewater Normal next year. We don't think she will be a "schoolmarm" for very long, however, do you?

NORMA LUSCIA

Norma is one of our quiet girls and has gone through Drury without doing anything spectacular but always attending to her own affairs. All those who know her like her. She is undecided as to what she will do next year, but we wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

FLORENCE MacDONALD

Nu Sigma

French Club 4

Drama Club 4

Florence decided that she must do something different and the best way to do it would be to finish her course in three years. Therefore this fall she left the class of 1930 and joined our ranks. 1930's loss was our gain. We are glad you came. Florence was picked as the best speaker in the Constitution Oration Contest. One of her many talents is drawing and she expects to continue her studies at Normal School of Art.

LAWRENCE MADISON "Maddy"

"Laurie" "D"

Baseball 3, 4

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Manager Basketball 4

Service Corps 4

"Maddy" is one of the most agreeable and reliable fellows in our class. He has found time to manage the basketball team through a successful season, financially or otherwise. In baseball he upheld the reputation of his brother. "Maddy" is our regular gloom dispeller, and the stories he doesn't know are not worth their weight in German marks. To your everlasting joyfulness and rapid success, we add our best wishes "Laurie."

AUDREY MARSHALL

Service Corps 3

Pro Merito 4

Glee Club, S. H. S.

Here is one of our brilliant girls. She is a member of that society where only the most select are allowed to enter, the Pro Merito. Audrey is a genuine man-hater, that is, she was, until,—let's see, which Pro Merito party was that, Audrey? She left us one winter for the Sunny South, but she decided that we were a good bunch after all, so she came back. We're mighty glad she did too, for she is one of our favorites.

ADELOR McCONNELL "Mac"

Cheer Leader 4

Traffic Corps 4

"Mac's" laughter will be sorely missed in the halls of Drury. We will miss his fun-loving spirit and his good-naturedness which has saved many a trying day up in Typing. He is always willing to take a joke, and in his twinkling brown eyes, there lurks just enough mischief to make him beloved by his classmates. We are not sure what his vocation will be, but his personality will make him a star in his line.

SOPHIA MELCHER "Soph" "Crackers"

Class Play 4

Service Corps 3

Basketball 2

Here's to you, Lady Clarise! What would we have done if "Soph" hadn't taken that part so well in the Senior play? She's quoting selections from her part yet, however, but we think that she'll get over it. Although her homework never really bothered her, we think a lot of "Crackers" for she has a sunny disposition and a fund of witty remarks. She thinks she will go to college next year, but she is not quite certain.

HENRY MILLER "Hannie"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Service Corps 3

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

Henry is one of the sheiks of the senior class. Maybe his picture doesn't look it, but he's really a "heart-thriller." He believes in dressing in the latest styles and always makes a snappy appearance. Nevertheless "Hannie" never neglects his studies and, in fact, he is one of our foremost mathematicians. He is also an accomplished musician, having no equal as a clarinet player in the whole high school. We wish Henry the same success in later life that has come to him at Drury.

JOSEPHINE W. MONAHAN

French Club 4

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

As one says "hook and eye" or "cup and saucer" so do we say "Josephine and Pauline." Josephine has been a member of the band all during her course at high school. She is a loyal Druryite and we found her a true friend. She is wating to see what fate will decree for her about next year. Wherever she goes in life we are sure that she will find a host of friends. Good luck, Jo.

EUNICE MORAN

Basketball 1

Eunice is one of the quietest girls in Drury. We have heard, however, that when she is with her own particular group of friends, she enjoys a good time as much as any of us do. Although Eunice does not say much, when she does speak, she causes gales of merriment for she has the faculty of making very witty remarks. Next year Eunice plans to train to be a nurse. We are sure that then her quiet manner will be a great asset. We wish you success, Eunice, in the years to come.

RACHEL ELIZABETH MORGAN "Rae"

Vice President of Class 1, 2 Band 1, 2, 3, 4
Student Council 3 Class Book Staff
Academe Typist Class Book Typist

"Rae" has been active in school affairs ever since her freshman year, greatly displaying her executive ability and clear thinking when on Student Council. She is also an able business student and we envy the office which secures her next year.

GRACE MYERS

Service Corps 4 Traffic Corps 3, 4

Drury this year reluctantly gives up Grace. Her jolly and sunny disposition have won for her loads of friends. If Grace becomes a school teacher, as she is planning to, she will have to get over that habit of blushing. This fall will find her name on the register at Normal School. We all know she will turn out to be a successful teacher.

PAUL NETHERWOOD "Red" "Brick"

This flaming youth sure knows his "stuff" when it comes to science or math. He can tell you anything you want to know about parallelopipeds or trinitro-toluene. Although Paul is terribly shy and blushes readily, he has never played "Drawback" in the game of "Rugby." During lunch period he is the glittering target on which all would-be scientists and Math sharks center their attack. "Red" has been told that Boston is noted as an educational center as well as the home of good-looking girls, so, he has decided to go to M. I. T. next fall. Good luck, Paul!

RUTH NETHERWOOD

Ruth is a very quiet girl, but still, you know, the quotation is that "still waters run deep." She is as studious as she is quiet, and she is always willing to help a classmate.

Until recently Ruth's attention has been wont to stray to one of the underclasses, but now we are glad to say a certain person of a higher institution of learning than Drury in this city has caused her to have a higher ambition.

Next year Ruth hopes to go to Normal School. We are sure her quiet smile will win her as many friends there as she had at Drury.

MARION NEUMANN

Marion said that she didn't do anything in high school, but we know differently. She captured the heart of a certain boy in our class. Ask Marion what song she likes to sing in assembly. In Marion we have found a sympathetic listener and a good chum. We sincerely hope that Dame Fortune will smile upon Marion and bring her success in whatever she undertakes.

MARGARET WILSON NEVILLE "Peg"

Academe Typist

Class Book Typist

Nu Sigma Epsilon

Yes, that very efficient typist is our "Peg." The business course has claimed her all her four years and she has used it well. While not in many activities she has not lacked good times wherever she has gone.

JAMES STUART O'HALLORAN "Stutz"

Band 1, 2, 3

Drama Club 4

Service Corps 3, 4

French Club

"Stutz" is a quiet chap, sometimes. That is, he doesn't try at all to make himself too conspicuous. In social affairs he has been so prominent that he has become known as quite a ladies' man. His speedy Paige is often seen on all the highways and on many byways of our famous metropolis. He has achieved a fine popularity by his droll wit and cynical good humor. On the other hand, he has distinguished himself as a follower of the terpsichorean art and was voted the best dancer in the class.

MARION OLDHAM

Pro Merito

At the beginning of our junior year we received Marion into our fold. Those of us who had known her in grammar school were glad to welcome her once more. She came to us all the way from Fond du Lac High School, Wisconsin. Marion has a high scholarship and expects to pursue her studies at Normal School next fall.

GEORGE OTIS "Brute" "Gige"

Band 2, 3, 4

It is a real art to be able to successfully conceal one's true self so that everyone is kept guessing as to what's what. The art is one that George has cultivated to such a degree that we were frankly puzzled. His good nature and sweet disposition have won him many loyal friends at Drury.

THERESA PAPPAS

Orchestra 1, 2

Basketball 1

Traffic Corps 3

And here's Theresa with her cheerful grin to greet you. We think a lot of her, for she is always smiling. She is a Commercial student, and we are sure, that when she learns the art of chewing gum a little better, so that she won't get caught in class, she will be an expert typist.

HYMAN PATASHNICK "Hymo" "Pat"

"D"

Baseball 4

Pro Merito 4

Basketball 3, 4

Nu Sigma Epsilon 3

Associate Editor of Class Book

Football 3, 4

Hyman is one of those fortunate individuals who are clever in more ways than one. He has attained that select society, the Pro Merito. There are two ways in which Hyman is bright. One is his athletic ability and the other is his achievements in scholastic pursuits. He has scrawled his name in Drury's Hall of Fame by his last-second basket from the center of the floor against Adams high. Moreover, to say the least, "Pat" is quite a sheik on the dance floor. 'Tis there he shines with all the fair sex. He journeys to Williams next fall.

LEON PATASHNICK "Litch" "D"

Basketball 3

After four years of hard work, so he says, "Litch" is now ready to leave the halls of Drury. His beaming smile and hearty good nature have won for him many friends here at Drury. Although he is a natural-born athlete, Leon has restricted his participation in athletics to one year of basketball when he stamped himself as being one of the best guards in the County. "Litch" is, undoubtedly, one of the best dancers in school, yet he has never graced the dance floor at any of our socials or Proms. Perhaps this is due to the fact that he has remained immune from the wiles of the "fickle sex."

RACHEL AGNES PECKHAM "Rae"

Class Play

"Rae" hails from way up in Pownal Center and the Berkshire Street Railway would be bankrupt, we feel sure, if it were not for her unfailing support. She has been very quiet during her sojourn with us but "still waters run deep" and "Rae" may surprise us yet.

DORIS PIGEON

"Good things come in small packages." This can be applied to Doris, for she has the distinction of being the smallest girl in the class. She came to us from Notre Dame, so she has only been in our class for two years. She is undecided what she will do next year.

CATHERINE PRING "Pat"

Traffic Corps 3, 4

Service Corps 4

"Pat's" cheery smile and hearty laugh have made for her many and true friends at Drury. She has won the hearts not only of her classmates, but of her teachers as well through her charming ways. "Pat" is planning to enter St. Luke's Hospital in the fall and we have no doubt but that she will meet with success while there.

JOHN PUPPULO "Johnnie" "Pup"

Class Basketball 3, 4

John has been a very close friend of the Manual Training Department during his four years at Drury. He has made a host of friends up here with that cheerful grin, coupled with his willingness to help others. "Johnnie" has never distinguished himself much as a grind. In fact school work or anything else, for that matter, has never worried him. He will grace the campus at Wentworth. Good-luck, ol' top.

PAULINE H. RACHDORF "Bib"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Soccer 2

Drama Club 4

Service Corps 4

Outing Club 1, 2

What would 1929 be without Pauline? After four years we are used to seeing Pauline rush into our home-room at one minute of eight. Don't try to get into heaven that way. "Bib" is well liked by all. She is a very ardent cheerer at Drury contests, especially at Adams games. Pauline is undecided where she will go next in search of learning, but our good wishes will follow her.

EDWARD REYNOLDS "Ed" "Sugar"

"Sugar" is another boy who journeys daily from Briggsville to Drury in an apparently never ending pursuit of knowledge. Although he has not shown as a ladies' man, we have heard on the q.t. that a certain maiden's love which was only a small spark, has burst into flame. Edward has been working at the Y.M.C.A. as an assistant physical director, and we are sure that he will rise high in his chosen field of work after graduating from Springfield College.

NORMAN RUSSETT "Norm"

President Pro Merito 4

Nu Sigma Epsilon 3

Class Play 4

Traffic Corps 4

Norman, one of the most popular fellows in our class, has achieved an envious record as our chemistry "shark." Here's a friend indeed! Need any help? Go to Norman. Need any advice? Go to Norman. Need a smile or a kind word? That's Norman. He's endowed with an abundance of brains and good sense. He has pursued the Scientific Course and is expected to continue in that line of work at college.

AMELIA SALVATORE

Faust 1

Amelia has made many friends in high school and has done her part to make 1929 a better class. Although Amelia may not be tall and willowy like some of us she makes in other things what she lacks in height. Amelia expects to be a nurse and 1929 wishes her prosperity and good luck.

DORIS SANFORD "Do-Do" "Dot"

Horseshoe Pitching 1 Class Play 4
Associate Editor Class Book 4 French Club 4
Service Corps 3 Academe Staff—Literary 4
Drama Club 3, 4 Class Book Typist 4

*"Wise enough, but never rigid,
 Gay, but not too lightly free."*

Doris came to us from that small, far away village of Stamford. She has distinguished herself during her stay here in many ways. Her work as Literary Editor of the Academe is worthy of praise. Her acting in the class play pleased us all. Next year she will start her training for nursing in the North Adams Hospital. Good luck, Doris!

WALTER SEEGAR "Walt" "Cigar"

Class Play 4 Baseball 4

"Walt" proved to be an able stage manager at our Senior Class Play, although he did pull the curtain the wrong way and gave the audience the "inside dope" on the show. Women haven't disturbed him yet, but when they do, the girls had better look out for "Walt" is considered an expert in trapping "bob-cats." His trapping ability also earned him a position on the baseball team and he turned in many fine catches. He has striven hard while at Drury and in the future we are sure he will uphold our standards.

ROSE SHAPIRO

Band 1, 2, 3

Rose believes in studying a little, but not too much. She is quiet, but seems to have a good time. We think she will make an ideal business girl. We wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

DANIEL SHEA "Dan"

Band 3, 4

"Dan" is an industrious worker but he is so exceedingly quiet that if it were not for his musical prowess we wouldn't have heard of him at all. There has been a marked increase in volume since "Dan" got tangled up in a Tuba. We know that whatever he intends to do next year will be done well.

HAROLD SHEA "Bunk" "Bunny"

"Bunk's" appearance to the casual observer would suggest the extremely lazy man. But he is like the age-old and famous maxim, "Looks are deceptive." You absolutely can't live a week in Drury without knowing that there is such a person as Harold Shea there. "Bunk" believes the world owes him a good time and he is out to collect it. He is the one and only real "woman-hater" of our class as well as the last of the traditional "bad-men" from the Normal Hill section of the city. Harold is an athlete even if he has not earned a varsity letter; for he may be seen at any time pointing out to Coach "Dave" Hosley the many falacies of the team.

HENRY SHEA "Hank"

Everybody knows "Hank," the scholar (?), the woman-hater, the "cut-up," and all around fine fellow. He has uncommon depth of character—a worth-while attribute in these wild days. Moreover, he has a very strong mind, forming his own opinions and keeping them regardless of anyone else. "Hank" has not broken any feminine hearts yet, but they have been known to pulsate with more rapidity when he is near.

JULIUS SOKOLOVE "Yut"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

"Yut" has won his popularity by just plain good-naturedness. He always takes everything in his happy-go-lucky way. He also enjoyed success as a musician in the famous Drury Band. He has tooted the cornet so well that we doubt if Mr. Chambers will be able to find an equal one who will be able to fill "Yut's" shoes. We're not quite sure whether he wears an eleven or twelve. No matter how thick the dark cloud, "Yut" will find a silver lining and he certainly will be hard to put down and out when he gets out into the world.

DOMINIC SPAGNOLA "Dom" "Sponge"

Orchestra 3, 4

It was only a few years ago "Sponge" was a complete stranger to us, but now he's one of our most steadfast friends. He is an accomplished musician and is the concert master of the Drury High School Orchestra. Dominic is undecided to what institute he will give himself, but the class feels that the chosen place will be fortunate.

IRENE SPENCER "Rene" "Spence"

Basketball 3, 4

Soccer 3, 4

"Rene" makes an excellent showing on the girls' athletic teams. She plays as though she loved to, and we feel sure that she does. It has always been her hard luck, however, to be called on in history for just the question she didn't know. Never mind, "Spenny," we know that you will make an excellent telephone operator next year.

GRAYDON SPRAGG "Gray"

Band 2, 3, 4

Graydon is a boy who just believes in tending to his own business. He is a fine student, an industrious worker, and a good fellow. In additon to that, he is an extremely fine scientist and he tells us that shock received from electricity is reciprocally proportional to one received from the sight of a painted idol. He plans to enter Williams where he will match wits with the Sophomores of that Institution.

MELVIN STICKLES

Band 3, 4

Class Play 4

Melvin entered our class when we were juniors. While he has not attracted us by his athletic ability, Melvin is an agreeable and reliable fellow. His quiet and unassuming manner may conceal his true character but anyone who recognizes Melvin as a friend, knows him to be a "reg'lar fellow."

DOROTHY STOCKWELL "Dot"

Class Play 4 Pro Merito
Nu Sigma 4 Service Corps 4
Basketball 2, 3, 4 Traffic Corps 3
Soccer 2, 3 Academe 4
Associate Editor Class Book

Wherever there's a good time to be had, there you will find "Dot." In basketball "Dot" particularly excels. Place a ball in her hands and she is in her element. She has never been known to miss a school game. Surely you have heard her cheering most enthusiastically for Drury many a time. She is what one might call a "living example of school spirit and loyalty."

Next year Dorothy will go to Normal School. We wish her luck, happiness, and many friends.

STERLING TANGLEY "Ster" "D"

Basketball 4 Class Play 4
Traffic Corps 4 Class President 1

It has been a pleasure to have had "Ster" with us. We have found him to be a most willing, cooperative, and cheerful scholar. His good spirits can never be restrained and rise to the surface on any occasion. He won considerable praise from basketball fans because of his speed and unerring accuracy in hooping baskets. Moreover, "Ster" has won great renown as a gymnastic artist and will continue his studies at Springfield College.

AGNES TODD

Agnes is one of our happy-go-lucky girls. Nothing ever worries her for long. She has made many friends at Drury and it is with regret that we have her leave us. She is undecided about next year.

ANNE TOOHEY

Anne has always been very quiet in high school, but those who have become intimately acquainted with her during these four years have learned that she is always ready to help, and capable of performing many tasks well. We wish her the best of luck.

DOROTHY TYLER "Dot"
"And life to her is such a lark."
Nu Sigma Epsilon

"Have you done your math yet, Dot?" "No, I didn't do a thing last night." Yes, that is Dot. But still she seems to be able to get good marks, and have a good time, too. We'd like to know how she does it, but that is beyond most of us.

IRENE URBANO "I"
Basketball 1, 2

Irene is just bubbling over with fun. She keeps her friends in gales of laughter all the time by her witty remarks and amusing incidents. There is also the sober side to Irene. She does her studying faithfully, and willingly helps her classmates. Irene is fond of sports and is one of the players of our girls' basketball team.

Next year Irene plans to go in training to be a nurse. We hope that she will find success and happiness in the work she has chosen.

MARJORIE WHITE

Basketball 3, 4

Soccer

Marjorie is one of our athletes. She is a good sport and a great lover of games. Our Drury games would not be complete without her, for she seldom misses one. Marjorie has made many friends at Drury and it is with regret that we have her leave us. Marjorie is planning to enter Normal School.

HELEN ELSPTH WHITNEY "Whit"

Captain 3

Service Corps 3, 4

Band 4

Outing Club 2, 3, 4

French Club 3

"Whit" is the athletic girl of the class of '29 as you may well see. She romped through school attending nearly every function that was planned especially if it pertained to athletics. If there were ever a giggling contest we would back Helen for the "doubles" providing she had Grace for a partner.

DORIS WILLIAMS

Class Play

Doris is one of our "social butterflies." Studies have no place in her life if there is something more interesting at hand—and there usually is. We hear that a particular point of interest at the present time is the A. P. W. It is "ours to reason why?"

Whatever Doris does in the years to come will be done in the same happy, carefree manner, and her motto will remain "On with the dance! let joy be unconfined."

KAREM ZITER "Karry" "Nig"

Band 2, 3, 4

Service Corps 4

Class Play 4

Cheer Leader 2, 3, 4

"Karry" is a veritable social lion who has never missed a social event in his four years at Drury. He takes a great interest in Miss Radlo's specimens; he delights in pulling them apart to find out how they function. Moreover, he is always ready to lead a rousing cheer for someone whenever the occasion requires it. He is undecided where he will go next year.

JAMES O'NEIL "Jim"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

It is extremely difficult to get acquainted with Jim, but the task is worth the result. The class of '29 is grateful for many things; James is one. He's a prince! Sincerity is "Jim's" middle name. He's everybody's friend, and despite his good looks, he's a man's man. His musical ability will be sorely missed by the Drury band. Wherever he goes we know that he will be as he has been at Drury, one of the most popular boys.

THE YEAR 1925 marked besides other events of very much minor importance, the entry of the Class of 1929 into Drury High School. We entered with a dogged determination to acquire the "philosophical habit" that is so essential to a liberal education. But alas! we were only a mere group of very awed and swell-headed youngsters, very fresh from grammar school. Then came school in earnest, and for a few days we were too busy trying to find our various classrooms, which had the bad habit of getting themselves juggled around unexpectedly, to care what anyone did with the rest of the world. We must admit that we did not startle our teachers with our marvelous intelligence and natural aptitude for learning. The bald and naked truth was that we were dumb, very dumb, very young and inexperienced. We envied the Sophomores and Juniors and revered our teachers, but we almost worshipped the Seniors. Soon, we were allowed to convene as a body and elect our class officers and, as a result, we were granted a single seat in our legislative body, the Student Council. The crowning feature of our first year, was the defeat that our class basketball team pinned on the haughty Seniors.

But what a change was seen in us the next year, for we were Sophomores. We held ourselves rather aloof from the Freshmen, for we thought we were too advanced for their company. Our Sophomore year was a year of happiness, of more or less good times. The boys began to wear long trousers and the miscalled weaker sex put on their war paint and made fools of the John Gilberts of the Senior Class. It was also the time when we felt ourselves well out of the mire of obscurity.

When we returned in the fall of 1927, we were greeted with hard work, for some of us who had crossed the "Rubicon" safely with Caesar began to flounder in the depths of Virgil. It was a year of much study and little spare time. This was also the year of our first Prom. Under the expert guidance of our class adviser, Miss Sherman, we scampèred all over the gym rafters trailing strips of red and white crepe paper with mouths full of pins. So the coming of the Junior Prom was heralded with great joy. All the bashful males and blushing

"femmes" came forth in all their splendor. Our athletes began to jump into prominence during this year for they were presented with the coveted "D."

We now have reached the longed-for goal, for we are brave and noble Seniors. We raised our chins a bit higher and we began to worry about our 160 points and B averages, a sure sign of the Senior. However, we carried our responsibilities calmly and studied a little harder. In the turmoil of study, we were able to find time to enhance our gym with our beautiful banner. Our Senior Prom was a huge success. Our athletes copped most of the positions in all three sports. We were proud to state that there were two three-letter men in our class. We have carried off honors and proved ourselves worthy of praise. The boastful Juniors, in their initial attempt to put on their Prom, received an elegant setback when it was learned that their banner was missing. However, we succumbed to pity and the banner was delivered unto them by the President of the Student Body. We now are ready to graduate and, although we rejoice that we have attained our goal, we grieve at bidding farewell to our beloved Alma Mater.

Thus endeth the history of the class of 1929.

Paul W. Lobo

AS OUR palatial Fokker biplane floated majestically above the beautiful "Berkshires," my thoughts returned to the golden days I had spent at Drury. Suddenly my "day-dreaming" was interrupted by a loud salutation from an old passenger who sat in the back of the cabin. I returned his greeting and inquired as to what my former classmates were now doing. After thinking a few minutes, Mr. Thomas began to talk and I earned the following:

Morris Kirchenbaum, after a long sojourn abroad, has returned to the United States where he will conduct a series of concerts.

Stewart Jayne and Julius Sokolove, erstwhile friends, have incorporated a new system in their chain-stores. Their system is based wholly on the invention of Walter Seeger, whose genius has perfected the "mechanical clerk."

In a series of competitive examinations, conducted by the General Electric, Norman Russett has been awarded the Steinmetz Prize for the most beneficial electrical invention of the year.

Hulda Buffum, noted archeologist, believes that she has unearthed the world's oldest pen in Babylonia. Elizabeth Chase, our local Librarian, disproves this statement as she believes that she has found the oldest pen in our local Post-Office.

Agnes Todd, who was maid of honor at a recent wedding, surprised the guests after the ceremony by marrying the parson.

Karem Ziter, head of the United Trust Company, is visiting one of his plantations in Hawaii.

Marion Heath and Marion Oldham have opened a tea room in Florida. They recently entertained Irene Urbano and Marjorie White, former classmates, who are now connected with George White's "Scandals."

Melvin Stickles is the author of the year's best seller "The Port of Missing Girls."

Helen Whitney is Physical Director at Wheaton College for women.

Grace Myers is Secretary to our State Senator, Dorothy Stockwell, who, by the way, is the first of her sex to hold that office in Massachusetts.

Graydon Spragg is a missionary in South Africa.

Mollie Astorino and Amelia Salvatore who own the "Permanent Wave and Beauty shoppe" are suffering from lame backs as the result of trying to lift the face of Fanny Ward.

Teresa Pappas and Doris Pigeon have just returned from the "far north" where they have been making an extensive study of Eskimos. They say that these people rarely cry or weep, but Ethel Bergen who has been working for several years in this field disputes this fact and states that Eskimos must have their daily "blubber."

Claire Cavanaugh and Dorothy Tyler have entered in a business partnership and are reaping great harvests from the profits of the "South Sea Synthetic Syrup" that will cure all ills, and like the "guillotine" is the best cure for headaches.

Doris Williams is writing articles for the New York Times on "Love and Sentiment" which are similar to those written in 1929 by Mildred Champagne.

Carroll Burdick was awarded a prize for writing the best novel of the year. It was published by John Puppulo who sent the first copy, gratis, to Mary Bigelow, who has recently acquired an English title.

Prophecy on Prophetess

ONE DAY while cleaning out the attic, I came across a peculiar looking object which appeared to be an old-fashioned lantern. Thinking it might be of some future use, I decided to polish it. At the first stroke of my hand a tiny genie appeared before me. As I knew the genie would answer any question I put before him, I gathered my courage to ask him to foretell a few events which would happen in the life of my Drury schoolmates, especially of Margaret Gurney. In answer to my inquiry in regard to Peg, the strange creature predicted that after her graduation from Framingham Normal, Margaret would teach a few years in a girls' preparatory school. The routine of teaching proving monotonous, she would serve two years as a model in the most exclusive Parisian Dress Shops. And I, remembering Margaret's good taste in dress and her ability to wear modish frocks, was not surprised at her taking this step. I was waiting to hear more when the genie suddenly disappeared. Frantically—for I desired to know if Margaret was to spend her life in a foreign country, I rubbed the lamp again, and once more the black genie appeared. Upon questioning him for the second time, he prophesied that Margaret would tire of her life in strange lands and would return to this country. She was destined to return to the teaching profession, this time to become an instructor in a Californian University where she was to meet her future husband, a professor of Mathematics. Neither did this bit of news startle me, for I recalled Margaret's popularity with the boys of Drury. The genie was almost on the point of disappearing when his faint voice foretold that Margaret with her husband and four children would make a tour of the world. Eagerly I waited to hear more, but the genie had vanished. Perhaps I had lost my power over the lamp, but howsoever it was and howsoever hard I rubbed, I could not bring back the enchanted slave whose powers of divination were so vivid. Sadly I put the old lamp on a shelf, but gladly I rushed to school to tell my classmates what Margaret's future held in store for her.

Class Will

BE IT known unto all those to whom it does not concern, that we, the Class of 1929, Drury High School, being in sound health and in-sane mind, except in a few cases, do hereby bequeath the following possessions that have been gained by us in four years of hard labor:

1. To Miss Radlo, our class adviser, we leave our undying gratitude and good will. Also, we appoint her executrix of this will.
2. To Mr. Caverly, our principal, we leave our heartfelt sympathy at the mammoth task he has before him in making Drury a model penitentiary.
3. To Mr. Thomas, we leave a beautiful silver-plated flute to play on instead of his or someone else's pencil.
4. To Dr. Gadsby, we leave an everlasting invitation to all athletic banquets.
5. To Miss Sherman, we leave a handsome padlock that may be used to guard her Junior banner.
6. To Miss Raidy, we leave a set of tools with which she may "jack" up her typewriters.
7. To Mr. McGrory, we grant the privilege to "arrest" without a warrant all "spooners" who park in the corridors.
8. To Mr. Hosley, we leave an oil-heater in order to heat our frigid water so that our athletes may take a suitable shower bath.

To the Class of 1930 we leave:

- The privilege of moving from the Balcony to our seats in the orchestra.
- The right to elect one of its members as President of the Student Body.
- The hope that at least a few of them will see their erring habits and reform.

To the Class of 1931 we leave:

- The privilege of wrangling over the choice of class colors and of making a Class Banner.

To the Class of 1932 we leave:

- A plan of Drury High School in order to prevent any serious mishaps.

To the Class of 1933 and all entering classes we leave:

- Four pleasant years in good old Drury and the assurance that we long to be in your places.

In the presence of the following witnesses, we do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Football

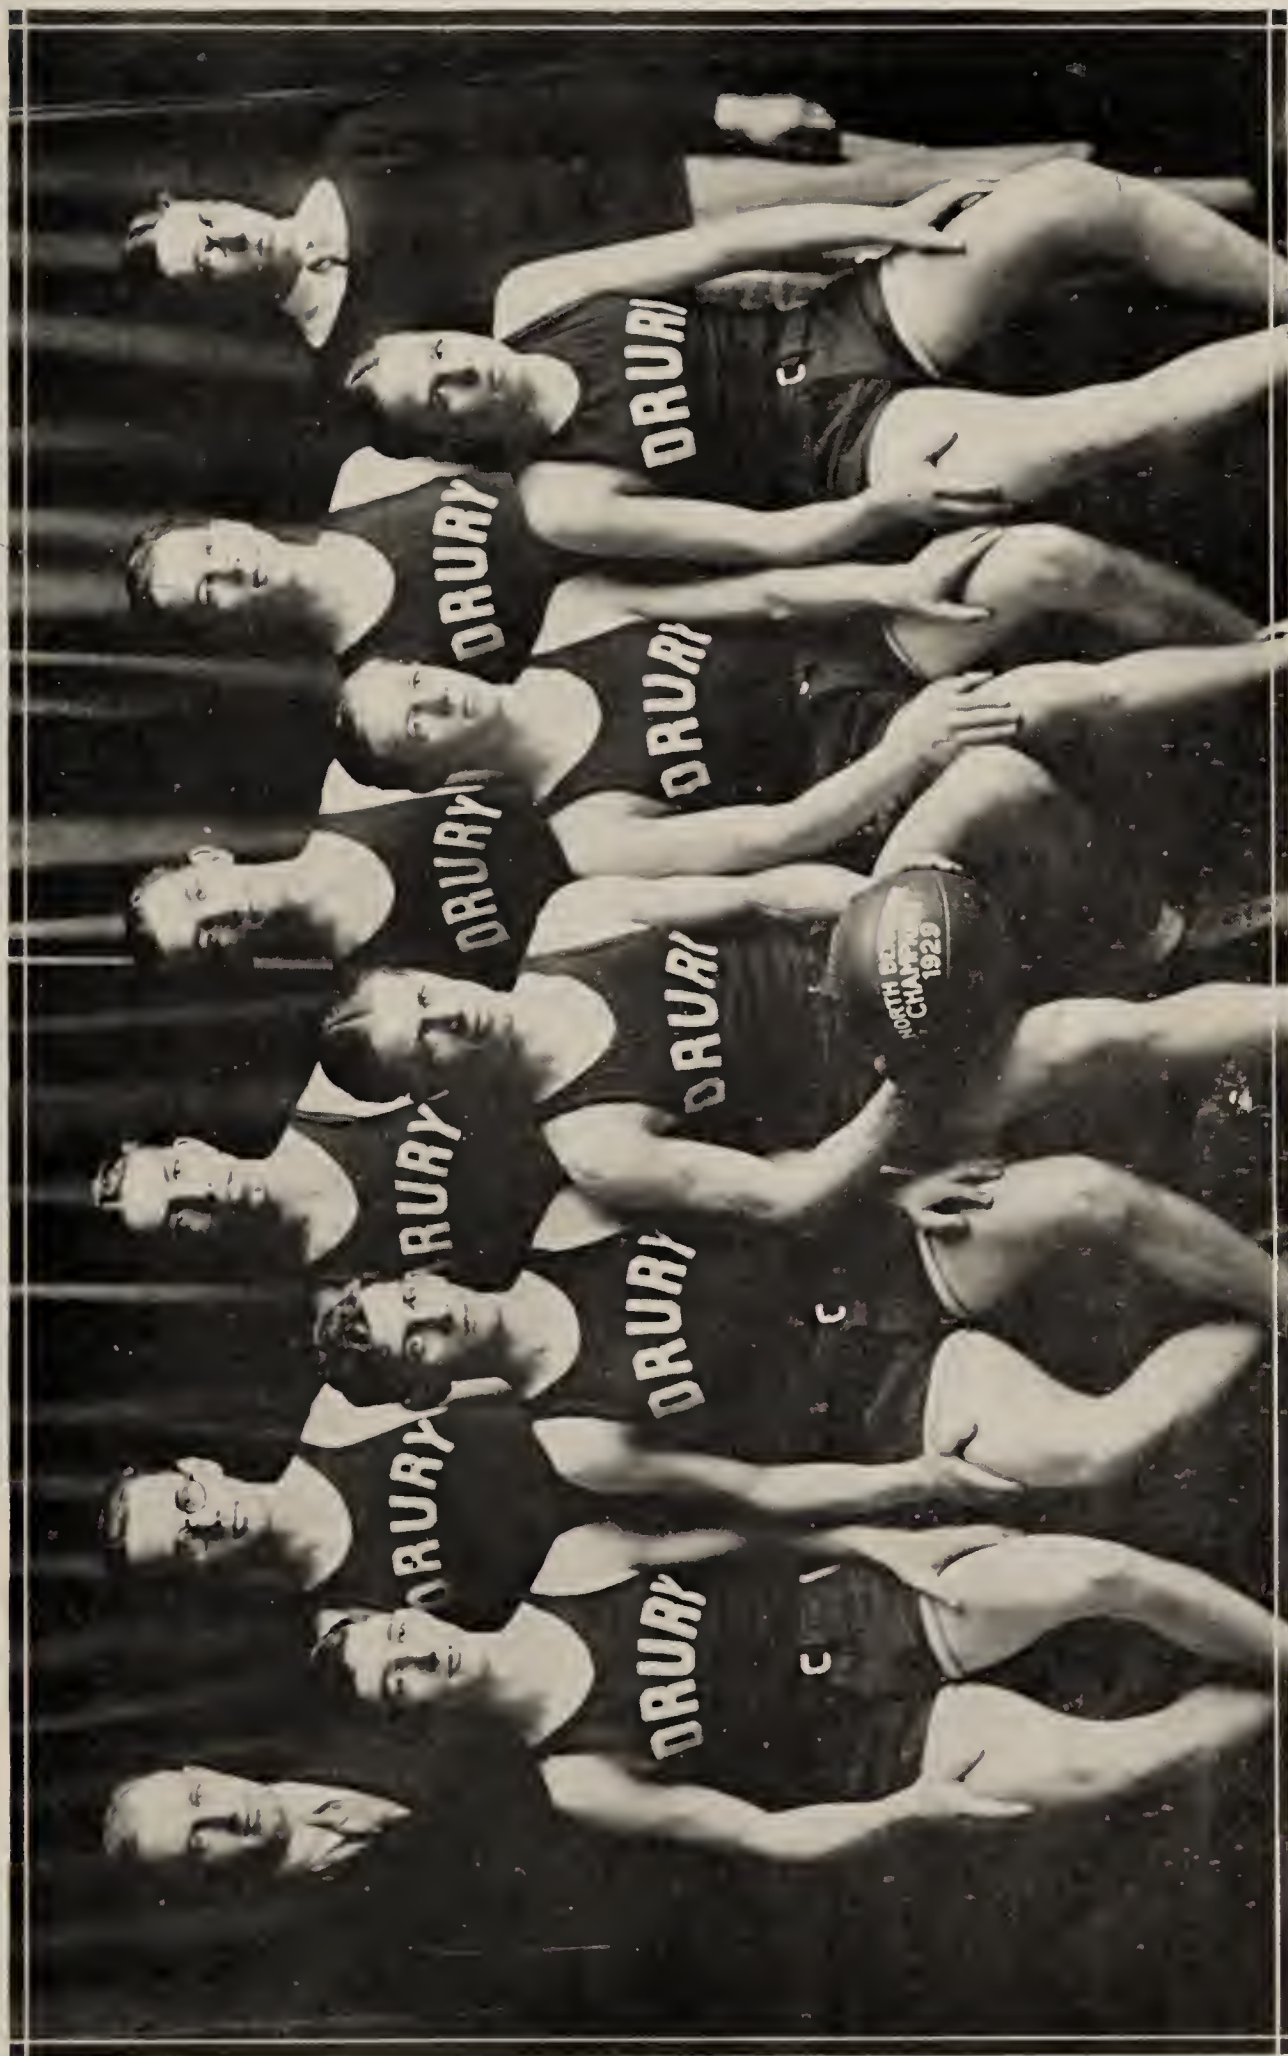

WHILE our athletic records for Nineteen Twenty-Nine have not been so brilliant as some of those established in the past, still they are perfectly respectable and acceptable at their face value. After a rather auspicious start against Bennington High, Drury dropped a pair of hard-fought games to Williston Prep. and Springfield Tech. Our football team then came out of the slump and held the strong Dalton and Pittsfield teams on even basis. Out of town games were dropped to Gloversville High and Greenfield High. We then brought our season to a close with our brilliant victory over Adams High, our traditional rival. The Class of 1929 was represented on the gridiron by seven "D" men.

FOOTBALL—1928

BASKETBALL—1928-29

Basketball

OUR BASKETBALL record was much more impressive. Out of twenty-five starts, we succeeded in coming out on top in fifteen games—a remarkable showing. Not one of the ten defeats was by any means decisive. Our two defeats in the league, pinned on us by Adams and Williamstown, came early in the season. We then proceeded to mow down the opposition in order and succeeded in winning the first Northern Berkshire League Basketball Championship under the régime of “Dave” Hosley. In a series of post-season games, Drury was defeated by Williams High of Stockbridge for the County Championship. “Twenty-Nine” has five men who earned letters in basketball.

BASEBALL—1929

Baseball

The baseball season proved to be unsuccessful inasmuch as games, won or lost, are concerned. However the fact that Mr. Hosley has developed a number of players who will be able to play next year may prove to be the redeeming feature of this year's baseball season. The Class of '29 was represented on the diamond by six letter men: Capt. Gagliardi, Lobo, Bishop, Madison, Burdick, and Seegar. The summary is as follows:

Drury	3	Williams '32	7
Drury	14	Dalton	4
Drury	8	Bennington	5

Girls' Basketball

THE SENIOR girls completed a very successful season. They won the interclass series their last year, and took second place their junior year. Helen Whitney captained the team her junior and senior years and showed skill in the manner in which she handled it. Dorothy Stockwell, Genevieve Doherty, Marjorie White, and Irene Spencer played guard positions, while Helen Whitney, Margaret Hicks, Marion Heath, and Dorothy Johnson shared honors as forwards.

Senior Play

"MONSIEUR Beaucaire," the heralded Senior Play, was presented November 22 and 23, 1928, surrounded by the atmosphere of powdered wigs and pantaloons. The play was entirely different from others given at Drury in many years. Roland Coughlin proved himself an able actor and successfully demonstrated that he could meet every requirement of the situation. Masquerading as a barber, he detects the Duke of Winterset, portrayed by James O'Neil, cheating in a game of cards. He poses as "Monsieur Beaucaire" and, much to the envy of Winterset, he courts the beautiful Lady Mary Carlyle.

Jaynette Loomis endeared herself to the audience with her charm and perfect portrayal of Lady Mary Carlyle. All others in the cast were admirably chosen in every detail and the play, the result of the painstaking efforts of Miss Lee, excited an unusual amount of favorable comment.

The costumes and scenery were exceptionally fine. Credit for these is due to Mr. Murray and members of the Manual Training Department, and it is no little amount that we give to them.

ON TUESDAY evening, June 18, 1929, our class enjoyed a splendid banquet in the Social Room. The entire graduating class was present, and their guests for the evening included many of the faculty. After a delightful meal which was prepared and served by the Domestic Science Department under the expert direction of Miss Hamblen, we sat back and listened to the array of interesting speeches prepared for us. Roland Coughlin, our class president, served as a most capable toastmaster and the toasts and remarks were of high order. Dancing was enjoyed in the gymnasium after the banquet.

Song

Drury, we sing to thee
Praises unceasing,
Honor and love
To thee increasing.
You've been our faithful guide,
Counsellor, friend
To thee we look with pride,
Our love extend.

We leave thy pleasant halls
More wise and sad,
But memory recalls
Thoughts true and glad;
We've spent four happy years
Drury, with thee
We now extend our cheers
Dear school, to thee.

Drury, we say goodbye
With heavy hearts
As the time is drawing nigh
For us to part.
All down the future years,
Come what there will,
We'll sing to thee, dear
Drury on the hill.
